

people of this community have honorably participated in every military conflict in our Nation's history. They have persevered over time by cultivating the region's abundance of natural resources. Warren is also home to Kinzua Dam, one of the largest reservoirs east of the Mississippi River. Most importantly the people of Warren are proud of their heritage, which is memorialized by the four flags flown each day in Heritage Park.

Warren is a special town, a community of spirit and pride. It is a wonderful place to live and I have many treasured memories from a lifetime of experiences there. Growing up in Warren provided me with a strong foundation of values, which continue to guide me to this day.

Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for allowing me the distinct pleasure of recognizing the 200th anniversary of Warren, PA. Warrenites embody what it is to be an American by uniting under the U.S. flag while remembering and honoring the pioneers who came before them. It is most appropriate that the bicentennial festivities coincide with the Fourth of July celebration. This holiday is more than just picnics and fireworks, it is the chance to reflect on a cherished privilege we call freedom.

PRESIDENT LEE'S ONE GIANT
STEP OUT OF ISOLATION

HON. EARL F. HILLIARD

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 28, 1995

Mr. HILLIARD. Mr. Speaker, I was pleased to see that President Lee Teng-hui had taken one giant step out of isolation in having concluded his private trip to a Cornell University reunion on June 9–10, 1995. As the Washington Post and other major newspapers have noted, President Lee's successful visit to his alma mater "marked a bold, symbolic step out of Taiwan's decade and a half of official international isolation."

Taiwan's political achievements are recognized worldwide, and I applaud Taiwan's successful efforts in having dismantled its old political system and replace it with one of Asia's most exuberant new democracies. In the last few years, martial law has been lifted, political prisoners have been freed, and opposing parties are firmly established and flourishing. Moreover, Taiwan has continued to enjoy an unprecedented economic prosperity. Its citizens enjoy one of the highest standards of living and Taiwan is our sixth-largest trading partner.

I have met with President Lee Teng-hui, an affable world-class statesman, as well as other Taiwanese leaders such as Foreign Minister Frederick Chien, a Yale-educated diplomat par excellence; and Representative Benjamin Lu, Taiwan's top diplomat in Washington, DC. They all have impressed me with their vision, forthrightness, intelligence, and their belief in our values and our democratic system of government.

Taiwan is our ally in the Pacific and throughout the world. In the days and months ahead, I hope to see even stronger support given to the Republic of China in its bid to enter the United Nations and other international organizations.

Mr. Speaker, my constituents in Alabama hope that Representative Benjamin Lu will soon find time to visit Alabama to tell the Taiwan story—a story that deserves to be told and retold as a shining example of how an undeveloped nation and its 21 million people became one of the world's most prosperous democracies in four decades. My constituents also are eager to hear Representative Lu tell how President Lee has taken Taiwan out of international isolation and how President Lee envisions Taiwan for the rest of this century and the early 21st century.

Representative Lu, my constituents and I hope you will come visit us in Alabama—real soon.

TRIBUTE TO OFFICER BOB HENRY

HON. CHRISTOPHER COX

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. COX of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of Bob Henry, a dedicated law enforcement officer for the city of Newport Beach, CA, who earlier this year was slain in the line of duty.

In the early morning hours of Sunday, March 15, 1995, Officer Robert Henry, 30, was shot in the head during a struggle with an intoxicated man intent on committing suicide. Officer Henry battled for his life, but passed away after more than a month of struggle on April 13. He was the first officer in the history of the Newport Beach police department to be killed in the line of duty.

A native Californian and a devout Catholic, Bob Henry joined the Newport Beach police force 5 years ago, and dedicated his life to serving and protecting the residents of Newport Beach. In his service there, he earned the respect of his colleagues and of his community. He is remembered as a model police officer, an officer who was always prepared to do whatever the job called for—bringing his strength, compassion, courage, and sense of humor along with him.

Above all, Mr. Speaker, Bob Henry is remembered as a loving and devoted family man. He leaves behind his wife, Patty, and their three children: 6-year-old Bobby, 2-year-old Jenna, and Alyssa—who was born only 1 month before the shooting. While nothing can compare to the incalculable pain they all feel at his loss, I hope it is of some comfort to them to that all of us feel a profound sense of gratitude for the sacrifice he was willing to make.

I ask my colleagues to join me in saluting the bravery and honor with which Officer Henry carried out his duties. His children must always know that their father's death was in the service of others, and that we will always honor his memory. Although we are overwhelmed with sadness, we are grateful that such a man graced us with his example, his commitment, and his sacrifice.

DELAURO HONORS 1995 SPECIAL OLYMPICS WORLD GAMES' VOLUNTEERS AND SPONSORS

HON. ROSA L. DELAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, in 2 short weeks the world will turn its eyes to New Haven, CT, where the 1995 Special Olympics World Games will be held. The games will showcase the talent and spirit of mentally retarded athletes from around the world.

The 1995 games will be the world's largest sporting event this year. Seven thousand athletes from 140 countries, 1,500 coaches, and 500,000 spectators are expected to attend. These figures represent significant growth for the Special Olympics since the first games were held in 1969.

The 1995 games have been made possible through the hard work and dedication of countless individuals, municipalities, private organizations, and businesses. There has been tremendous enthusiasm and support generated from all levels throughout the region. Today I would like to specifically recognize the contributions of the games' volunteers and sponsors, who have given so much to this worthy cause.

Forty-five thousand volunteers, the largest volunteer force ever assembled in the Northeast, are taking part in the games. I salute the residents of south central Connecticut and the entire State, for their commitment and spirit. These volunteers have been working fast and furiously to ensure that the athletes enjoy nine wonderful days of competition, friendship, and learning. All of the volunteers have participated in training sessions about how to work well with people with mental retardation and to address the vast cultural differences of the many visitors.

The games are fortunate to enjoy the support of many corporate sponsors. Among the major private contributors are McDonald's Corp., Coca-Cola Co., Eastman Kodak Co., IBM Corp., Adidas, General Motors Corp.'s GMC Truck, and M&M Mars. These corporations have generously provided much of the financial support that is vital to ensuring that the games are a success.

Last week the President, who is honorary chair of the Games, announced that he will attend the opening ceremony in New Haven on July 1. His participation in this event is a tribute to the volunteers and the sponsors who through their hard work and dedication have assured that the Special Olympics will be well-received both nationally and internationally.

I ask my colleagues to join me today and salute the contributions of the thousands of volunteers and sponsors who, through their generosity, have made the games the success I know they will be. Their efforts will make the 1995 games a world class sporting event for these very special athletes to enjoy.
